The M.'s letter and the D.'s letter explain the facts of the case in detail

In G.O. dated 6.4.1925 it was directed that the Delvadaya inam lands endowed to the Grama Chattram be left in the possession of Mr. Naraniengar and others subject to the condition that they shd maintain the Chattram building in proper repair and that failure to do so wd entail the resumption of the Inam lands.

It is now reported that the building has not been repaired ever since it was restored to the Trustees but that the Inam lands are being enjoyed in shares by a number of people. It is also stated that one Swamidar, Mr. Chamapathia Naraniengar has come forward with a proposition that if all the lands are handed over to him, he will undertake to repair the building

*In response to the notice issued to the Trustees to show cause why the lands should not be resumed

C/o Chattram lands at Gudiyam

Clay File No. of 1934 | General and Revenue Secretariat

The D.C Hassan recommends acceptance of this proposal. The M.C states that past experience in such cases shows that much reliance can not be placed on the conditional offer now made by Mr Narasimhachar and he is not in favour of this proposal. He has also stated that this case is similar to those of the Chattrams of Mayasandra and Krishnarajapur, the inam lands of which have already been resumed by Govt.

2 The recommendations of the M.C are

(i) that the lands may be resumed, their inam tenure may be cancelled, and they may be sold in public auction, the sale proceeds being credited to the Zilla Muzrai Fund;

(ii) that the Chattram building (which was constructed by the ancestors of the present grantees) may be left to the managers for being dealt with as they like;

and (iii) the debit balance of Rs 425-12-0 which is being shown in the accounts of the Chattram, may be ordered to be adjusted and the closing balance of the Chattram cash fund for 1933-34 ...

Submitted for orders.
